

Marcy from Endurance Athletics says the suits are in and most of you should have received a call from her stating as such. She'll be at the meet on Saturday and has a couple of extra suits to sell.

The new Season Volunteer Signup Board should be up in the pool hallway!

Also it's official! The 3rd Annual Block Party Invitational will be held at the Y on December 19th and we will need LOTS of help! Please see website for information!

Thanks!
